STUDENT LIFE

PROM '86

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

'Twas April 26 and all through the town, Asheville was rockin' — we were Grove Park bound ... Prom night 86' — the glitter, the gold — jammin' to "Make Believe", we were out of control ... The hot wheels rolled in, from trucks to limos, all shined to perfection and rarin' to go ... Ladies in satins, silks and lace — Gents in their coattails, bow ties in place ... The tables were laden with food and more food — the photographer snapped shots — "lookin' good!" ... Some hearts were broken, others mended by magic, but as the clock struck twelve midnight, the ending seemed tragic ... The Night to Remember rocketed out of sight — "Can I have the last dance?" ... PROM NIGHT!!

As the day began to fade, the senior class of 1986 assembled outside. Friends congregated to talk and laugh, to smile and remember. Soon, they all formed a line to march out to the field, knowing it was their last day of high school. Co-valedictorians April Klein and Veronica Staton stressed the importance of friends, and salutatorian Cody Justus emphasized the significance of the class song "Don't Look Back" by Boston. Finally, each senior crossed the stage to receive his or her diploma. It was a time for tears of happiness and tears of sadness. So, to the graduating class of '86, farewell and good luck!!

This year's Homecoming activities included the decorating of the buildings, dress-up days, a car show, and a bonfire with the crowning of the powder puff queen. A highlight of the week was being chosen by KISS-FM as the most spirited high school. Radio personality John Oliver presented the spirit trophy at the pep rally on Friday. With the excitement still running high, Christy Dodson was crowned 86-87 Homecoming Queen during the half-time festivities. After the Eagles defeated the Enka Jets, the week ended with a dance.

To The Senior Class of 1987:

It seems only yesterday that we were crawling around campus in diapers and sucking on pacifiers, being ordered to do outrageous tasks just to satisfy the class of '85's sense of humor. We, as sophomores, stood aloof as the upperclassmen had their acts together. Struggling to fit in, we soon shared the Eagle name and began to understand the concept of high school life. Also, we realized our mortality with the tragic death of our classmate and good friend, Theresa Adair. This fatality drew us closer and focused our attention on the preciousness of life.

Thankful our sophomore year was over, we returned to East as juniors with a positive attitude. We assumed the role of giving the new sophomore class a hard time because, much to our chagrin, initiation day was abolished. With great anticipation, we awaited our first prom; class status was not going to omit us this year! On April 26th, the magical night presented itself and proved to be "A Night to Remember" . . . To make our car payments, we worked in our spare time. Yet, we made time to attend that Homecoming football game or that rival basketball game that Coach Tebben grew the peach fuzz on his lip for. No one could ever accuse the class of '87 of not having spirit; on the contrary, we showed an abundant supply during our three year stay. Our enthusiasm soared when Doc proudly announced the junior class had received the honor of "Class of the Year" at the move-up assembly. And move up is precisely what we did.

Along with the title Senior comes a special feeling. Whether it is walking down the aisles to the tune "Fantasy", or looking on at the underclassmen as they stare in admiration at who's sitting in the senior circle, one can't deny the feeling of seniority (often to be confused with authority).

In August of '86 we returned to school as seniors to view the great enthusiasm of our senior football players. "Mohawk Mania" had struck. The entire student body looked on as we witnessed Coach Reneau catch the fever. Coach Matthews did the shaving honor. This was an excellent example of our appetite to win in football. Despite the negative comments East had endured in the past, the fog was finally lifting. We were making the difference. East is, and always will be, standing proud "in the hills of Carolina".

Because of the sudden ban on cruising down Main Street, seniors searched for other means of entertainment. These activities included a lot of movie going, massive partying, and rolling houses with cheap toilet paper.

Seniors quickly realized the dual meaning of the word "convenience" — 1) the assurance of knowing one has a parking space, and 2) Cliff's Notes for Mrs. Nickell's class.

We, the seniors of 1987, will continue to strive for excellence at our own personal goals — what ever they may be. These memories, and many others, will be tucked away in the backs of our minds but never to be forgotten.

EAGLES ARE UP TO PAR

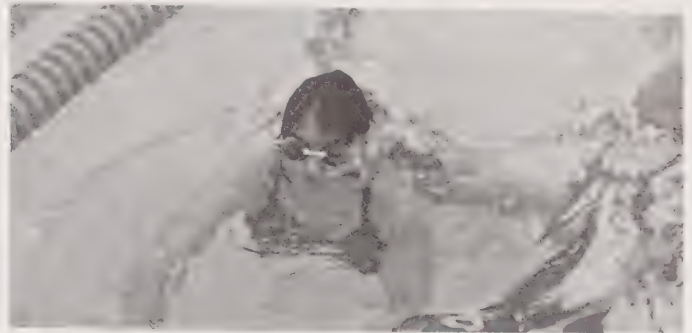

Mr. Sapp

A group of players proudly wore mohawks as a "quest for victory" symbol. Coach Matthews led the Eagles to a 3-7 record, and the end of an era. East dropped its long time county rival Hendersonville; the game that no matter who won, we were friends, still. Nonetheless, we enjoyed seeing these men give it their 110% on the field.

To My Daughter Renae,
Now that you're growing up I can see that you're a beautiful addition to the world. I'm so proud of you as I watch you doing things on your own. I know you'll find happiness and success because I'm confident in your ability, self knowledge, and values. On this, your graduation day, I say I love you.

TO OUR SON JEFF

From the day you were born you were so special, so smart, so sensitive, so good. It was so much fun to watch you as you grew. You became your own person with your own ideas and your own way of doing things. It was so exciting to watch you. As you grew more you became more independant; still special, still smart, still sensitive, still good. We are so proud of everything about you and we want you to know that we love you dearly.

MOM and DAD

ANDY

We love you and are going to miss our #88 on the football field next your future we will be behind you

Last Words

The Editors' Last Will and Testament:

We, the editors of the 1987 Highlander, being of sound minds and bodies, declare this our last page of the yearbook our last will and testament.

To the Juniors of the staff, we leave the fun of the upcoming year and hope that they will continue to be on the staff for their Senior year. We also hope that they will live through the same problems that we did.

To the Seniors of the staff (especially the two-year members), we want to say thanks for sticking with us through all of this. We really had fun working together through these years. Thanks for all the last minute rushing to meet the deadlines and all our laughs together, especially at UNC-A when we all split up, each knowing the "right" way home.

To Julie, please leave your felt-tip pen at home or your college career will be ruined — so will the Ads.

To Brad and Monty, thanks for the great cover idea and for all the hard work you put into all of your pages.

To Mrs. Gray, we really appreciate the troubles you put up with, especially with all of our questions and our wanting to get out of class (when only one was to go). Thank you and have a quiet summer without us.

To the Class of '87, congratulations on making it this far and remember — WE WERE THE CLASS OF THE YEAR!! We were awesome! Our best wishes for your continued success. We love you and hope to see you again really soon.
Love,

Tara Holbert & Stephanie Russell
